SIEVERS TO DISCUSS MCH
OBJECTIVES, SOLICIT IDEAS
APRIL 17-20 IN NORTHERN MONTANA

MISSOULA--

Bruce R. Sievers, Missoula, director of the Montana Committee for the Humanities (MCH) will make a four-day tour of northern Montana communities beginning Tuesday (April 17) to explain MCH objectives and solicit ideas for public forums conducted under a $155,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. (NEH)

The grant was awarded to the MCH by the NEH in October 1972.

"A total of $58,735 of the $155,000 grant has been awarded to 19 groups in the state since last October to assist state residents in exploring such areas as the environment, education, the state's economy and minority group questions from a humanistic standpoint," Sievers said, "but we want to insure that all residents, especially those in the state's outlying areas, have an equal opportunity of sponsoring programs under the MCH award."

Sievers, who has his MCH office at the University of Montana, Missoula, said he will visit with residents in 11 communities during his tour.

Sievers said the public is invited to any of the sessions scheduled during his tour.

Times and places set aside for Sievers' discussion with residents of various communities are:
